from the Executive Director

I love libraries and not just because I work in one. I love them for all the possibility they hold and all that they offer their community; a chance to learn a new language, the tools to apply for a job or unemployment; a person to notarize important documents; a possibility to meet new people; and the wonder of discovering new concepts. Libraries help improve the lives of their users; grant them access to places and ideas they never dreamed of knowing; and they offer lots of memories to be made.

I have fond memories of all the time spent in libraries growing up. I checked out stacks of books at a time as well as books on record that I could listen to over and over again. I loved getting scratch and sniff stickers for my summer reading prize. I attended library programming and classes including one to become a certified babysitter. I tore through Beverly Cleary and Judy Bloom and Baby-sitters Club books faster than they could be published. Such comforting memories are one of the reasons why I chose my profession.

I am sure many of you have memories like this that have nurtured your own love of libraries. So this month is for you! February is Library Lovers’ Month dedicated to everyone who loves libraries and all they that provide.

If you’re wondering how you can show us how much you love Westerly Library & Wilcox Park, my number one answer is to use the library. We have something for everyone. Of course we have books, movies, and magazines in both print and digital formats, but we also have storytimes for kids, D&D for Tweens & Teens, adult programs and clubs, a Library of Things including museum passes and hotspots, private study rooms, an art gallery and so much more!

If you already use the library, you might also consider volunteering to shelve books, weed in the park, or help during special events. You can support us by making a monthly or annual donation (we are a non-profit organization) OR by purchasing tickets to our fundraisers. The next one, Caddy Stacks, is mini-golf in the library on Saturday, March 8; families are invited to play in the morning and adults only later in the day. It’s going to be the best, by par!

Please read on to discover all the reasons why libraries are priceless treasures and so easy to love.

Warmly,

Brigitte S. Hopkins
Executive Director

Have you ever wondered how books, DVDs, or items from the Library of Things are added into the library collection? Once items are ordered and arrive from our vendors, our Collection Management (CM) department receives them. Here, invoices are checked and coded to the appropriate fund, and items are processed so that they are available on the shelves for you, our patrons.

Collection Management is one of the busiest departments as deliveries are made every day—not just for library materials like books, but for items related to programs in every department. In addition, damaged items are also sent to CM to evaluate whether it is possible to repair them. Although their work is often behind the scenes, the library's operations would not be possible without our team in CM!

Some of the more unusual items that have to be cataloged are from our Library of Things including a knife sharpener and disco ball. Working to build our collection is never ending!

This gorgeous pumpkin won our pumpkin decorating contest, held last year on October 26th during our annual pumpkin stroll. There were so many incredible entries! We have been displaying it in the 2nd floor Reference Department since Halloween. At this point, we are convinced that it must be inhabited by small fairies or gnomes that come out at night and shore up their magical home, because this pumpkin has not begun to deteriorate at all. We cannot figure out why it still is so fresh. But early morning library staff that begin their days when the library is closed report seeing a faint yellow light emanating from the cottage windows as the night darkness fades away...

We start by mingling with other readers for 15 minutes followed by 1 hour of silent reading and then wrap up with another 15 minutes of discussion (or continued silent reading). Silent Book Club is a great way to meet other readers in the area and learn about new (and old!) books others are currently loving.

in the vault

Sallie Coy was the longest-serving Librarian and Library Director in the history of our organization. She joined WLWP in 1911 as the first Librarian and quickly rose through the ranks, ultimately holding the position of Director until her retirement in 1960.

Our reimagined space within the library is The Pop-Up at Coy. This area is a small activation space at the front of the library, adjacent to the main entrance. Originally the reception office, the space has served many other purposes over the years including Sallie Coy's office, the circulation desk, Friends Bookstore, and following a renovation in 2017, a Café. It is now ready for its next chapter as The Pop-Up at Coy.

The space was named after Sallie Coy, honoring her contributions to the organization and her many years of dedicated service.

We hope to see you at The Pop-Up at Coy soon.

If you are interested in reserving space for a temporary storefront, informational & resource hub, student project or more, please contact awagner@westerlylibrary.org. For more information about The Pop-Up at Coy, please click here.

hanging in the hoxie • Ellen Gregory Exhibit

This month's exhibit will feature pieces from local artist Ellen Gregory! Head to the Hoxie Gallery from 5-7 pm on Wednesday, February 5th for an opportunity to enjoy light bites, and to Meet the Artist. Her pieces can be viewed in the Hoxie Gallery through the month of February during library hours.

About Ellen Gregory:

Years of painting as a hobby morphed into a more polished style. Although not an art student, I used my free electives in high school and college to take courses in painting, drawing and 3-D design. Over the years I have taken additional courses at the Wadsworth Athenaeum in Hartford, Connecticut and the Lyme Art Association, Lyme, Connecticut. I am constantly polishing my skills. Currently, I am working in oil. Most of my inspiration comes from the way colors look next to each other. My paintings are eclectic but may eventually evolve to one style. Who knows? Right now vibrant, rich colors make me happy and I love to share that with people. Some of my paintings seem to glow and I think that's a good thing. My paintings have been shown at the Lyme Art Association, Norwich Arts Center and The Red House Cultural Arts Center. I am an Associate Artist at the Lyme Art Association and a member of the Madison Art Society.

Musical Theatre Audition Workshop • 20th & 27th • 5-7:45 pm • Auditorium

With twenty years of Broadway experience, director Dave Solomon will lead an Audition Workshop where participants will get one-on-one time and training working on a musical theatre song of their choosing. Over two sessions, the group will first audition their piece, then get direction and audition advice that they will continue to develop and work on for the following session. Participants should expect a supportive, fun and character-based approach to auditioning; with skills and advice that can also be used for theatre and film performance.

Registration is required for this two-session workshop. Click here to register.

Film Screening and Q&A | Mr. Holmes • March 15th • 1-3:30 pm • Auditorium

In addition to his own film work, Dave Solomon worked as the Assistant to Oscar-Winning screenwriter and director Bill Condon on the films Mr. Holmes and Disney's live-action Beauty and the Beast. Solomon lived in London for two years and spent the summer of 2014 in the English countryside working alongside Condon, and acclaimed actors Ian McKellen and Laura Linney, on the picturesque, mysterious and moving story of an aging Sherlock Holmes. In the film, McKellen plays a retired Sherlock who struggles with dementia, but develops an unexpected friendship with a young boy who encourages him to dig into his deepest memories to solve one of his final cases. Solomon will be present at the screening and offer a Q&A after to answer questions about the process and his experience working on the film.

Registration is not required, but it is encouraged. Click here to register.

The Cottage in Wilcox Park is available for private events! Reserve it now for an upcoming work or family gathering, a bridal suite or birthday party, temporary office space or workshop, and more. Click here for more information.

At WLWP we celebrate our dedicated staff members monthly. Colleagues are nominated for going above and beyond by their peers. Atta•dudes, as we call them, are awarded to the staff member who receives the most nominations in a month. Keara was our winner of December's atta•dude!

Keara was recognized for taking detailed staff meetings notes, helping clean up a settee in the Old Main Reading Room and assisting with a potential building leak.

After the hustle and bustle of the holiday season and busy downtown streets, the community has continued to brace the cold to gather together at Westerly Library & Wilcox Park. We are proud to work in collaboration with other local organizations to host programs and events throughout the year to help support and bring our community together.

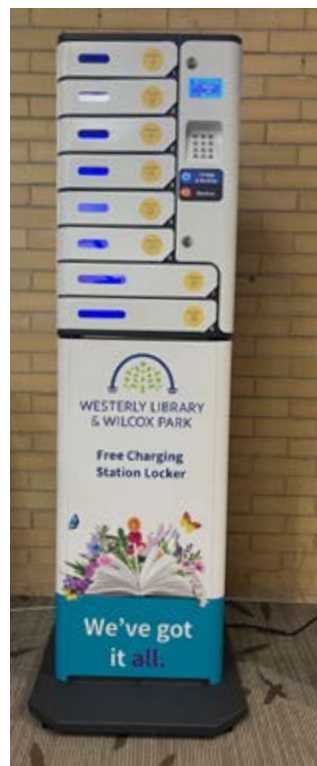

On January 15th, we honored the life and contributions of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. through an exceptional event created in partnership with the Westerly Area Peace and Justice Group, Westerly Anti-Racism Coalition, and the Rotary Club of Westerly. Together we listened to short readings from his written work and broke into small groups to discuss his legacy and continued impact on our community and on others around the world.

In partnership with Green Planet Films and the Dante Society of Westerly, neighbors joined on the 25th for a documentary screening of "Naples and the Amalfi Coast: La Dolce Vita?" (soon to be available for circulation on DVD). Viewers stayed for a vibrant discussion on the impacts of tourism around the world and in our own backyards. Together they noticed similarities and differences between the seaside Italian villages and our own coastal town. Many left with an appreciation for our local summers and also a renewed appreciation for our quiet winters and year-round active community.

If you represent a local organization which may be interested in partnering for future events at Westerly Library & Wilcox Park please contact our Program & Outreach Associate, Julianna Risica: jrisica@westerlylibrary.org or 401-596-2877 ext. 344.

public services

So you're walking through Wilcox Park and notice your phone is running low and will not last through the podcast/playlist that accompanies your journey. Or you're deep into a term paper, and your tablet decides to go dark along with all of the research you've completed. Maybe you're in the reading room basking in the afternoon glow and your Air pods just turn off. Now, the question is, where can you charge your device? Thanks to a RI Legislative Grant through our local Senator Victoria Gu, we have has acquired an Honest Waves Secure Tech 8 Plus Charging Locker – the perfect solution!

You will find our new charging locker across from the Circulation Desk. The Charging Locker consists of eight lockers that have three charging cables: a Micro USB, Lightning and Type C that will fit most devices. Bonus feature: the charging locker will also sanitize your device using an Ultraviolet-C light! The lockers are sized for your smartphone or tablet.

You don't need a library card to use the charging locker – it's available to everyone! To get started, press the green Sterilization & Charge button below the keypad. Follow the prompts on the charging locker to choose a bay, enter a 4 digit pin you create (and you must remember for later), and plug in your device. When you're ready to reclaim you're now charged and sanitized device, push the Retrieve button and follow the prompts. Happy Charging!

Your place for all things creative....your Makerspace. Come in and explore all our equipment available for you to utilize for FREE!

The Makerspace was a busy place during the holiday season. Our Technology Associates scheduled 27 appointments during the month of December to assist individuals with holiday gifts. A patron created a pillow on the sewing machines. Someone made a fun keychain and another individual burned a labyrinth on a cutting board, both created using our Glow Forge Laser Printer.

Looking to convert old family slides to a digital format, create a podcast, personalize items, sew clothing and so much more... look no further than the Makerspace.

To schedule an appointment please contact our Technology staff at 401-596-2877 ext. 9 or click here to email.

We are excited to announce that we have been awarded Arbnet Arboretum Accreditation Program!

The ArbNet accreditation is important to our arboretum at Westerly Library and Wilcox Park because it solidifies the essence of what our historic Park represents. Since the inception of Wilcox Park in 1898, we have had many knowledgeable and skilled Park Superintendents and Park Staff that contributed to the development of our arboretum. Currently, 2 full-time and 3 part-time staff dedicate their time to the park. The stewardship of our tree collection has been a high priority for the Memorial and Library Association which brings great pleasure to local and seasonal visitors. The value of our arboretum is evident by our patrons' deep appreciation of the visual beauty of our trees, as well as arborists' and other horticultural specialists' deeper understanding of our individual specimens and collections as a whole. The Wilcox Park arboretum enhances our nationally significant listing on the National Register of Historic Places and is a worthy example of Landscape Architect Warren Manning's (associate of Frederick Law Olmsted) work who designed the Park from 1898-1904.

Enhancements to Warren Manning's design include the addition of formal and perennial gardens, a native pollinator garden and rain garden. These gardens are seamlessly integrated within the arboretum. With over 60 dedicated volunteers per season, mostly seasoned University of Rhode Island

Master Gardeners, our vast array of plants and trees are meticulously maintained throughout the growing season.

The Wilcox Park arboretum is home to 8 RI Champion trees as designated by the RI Tree Council. These trees, along with approximately one-third of the trees in the arboretum are individually labeled by genus, species, and common name. In fact, the trees and select woody shrubs in the park have been inventoried in a comprehensive database in Google Maps which is accessible to the public by QR code or link.

The Wilcox Park arboretum has been home to a number of public educational programs for years. This year we will host the 41st annual Garden Market Fair that boasts a variety of local vendors and community organizations, complete with alpacas and a host of children and adult activities. For years, the URI Master Gardeners have led monthly Specimen Tree and Native Plant tours on the second and fourth Saturdays from May through October. Private tree tours are also conducted ~10 times per year. Patrons are very appreciative and often return more than once over the growing season as the trees transition from leafing out, to bloom, to producing fruit, to preparing for winter. If scheduling is prohibitive, patrons can pick up a hard copy of the self-guided tour of Wilcox Park at the our Public Services desk in the library for a small fee, and tour our specimen trees, monuments, and gardens at their leisure.

From our newly planted grove of dawn redwoods (Metasequoia glyptostroboides) to our well established Cherry Alee, along with our recognized 8 RI Champion trees, our historic 15-acre arboretum hosts a wide variety of trees and woody shrubs comprised of 159 different tree species and 43 unique cultivars. Securing Level II accreditation is an honor, confirming Wilcox Park as a bona fide premier arboretum.

This February, Westerly Library & Wilcox Park invites kids, tweens, and teens to get comfy and cozy while enjoying a variety of fun and engaging programs. Whether you're looking to celebrate cultural traditions, embrace cozy activities, or simply enjoy some indoor fun, the library has something special for everyone.

Start the month by joining the Lunar New Year Celebration 2025 on February 8th from 1-3 pm. Celebrate the Year of the Snake with an exciting performance by traditional Lion Dancers from RI Kung Fu & Lion Dance Club, bringing joy, energy, and good luck to the library. This family-friendly event will also feature crafts and activities to help children learn about the rich history of Lunar New Year traditions.

From February 18th-22nd, take part in Hygge Week, where kids, tweens, and teens can embrace the Danish concept of coziness and well-being. Throughout the week, enjoy activities like cozy craft sessions, relaxing storytimes, and mindfulness practices. The library will also offer a selection of Hygge-inspired books and activities to help young visitors unwind and feel at home.

Whether you're snuggling up with a good book, crafting, or participating in these exciting events, February at Westerly Library & Wilcox Park is all about getting comfortable and making lasting memories. It may be cold outside, but it is warm and welcoming in Youth Services!

In case you missed our recent Library of Things Demo Day...we have added Youth Services items. Be sure to come in and browse. There's busy boards, keyboards, cardboard tool set, leapfrog globe and many other fun and educational items.

Hollow Kingdom by Kira Jane Buxton
Recommended by Caroline

Humanity's extinction has seemingly arrived, and the only one determined to save it is a cowardly crow whose only knowledge of the world comes from TV. Funny and sweet!

Writers & Lovers by Lily King
Recommended by Julianna

Blindsided by her mother's sudden death, and wrecked by a recent love affair, Casey Peabody has arrived in Massachusetts in the summer of 1997 without a plan.

Vanderbilt: the Rise and Fall of an American Dynasty by Anderson Cooper

Recommended by Caroline

Drawing on never-before-seen documents and told from a unique insider's viewpoint, the CNN anchor tells the story of his legendary family and their remarkable influence. I listened to this one and he's a great narrator.

The Eyre Affair by Jasper Fforde
Recommended by Maria

The first novel in the renowned Thursday Next series, which "combines elements of Monty Python, Harry Potter, Stephen Hawking, and Buffy the Vampire Slayer" (The Wall Street Journal).

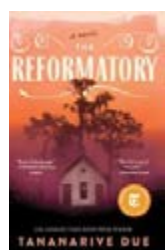

Brooklyn by Colm Tóibín
Recommended by Cassie

Coming of age in small-town Ireland in the years following World War II, Eilis Lacey is one among many of her generation who cannot find a job in the miserable economy. When an Irish priest from Brooklyn offers to sponsor Eilis to live and work in America, she decides she must go, leaving her fragile mother and her charismatic sister behind.

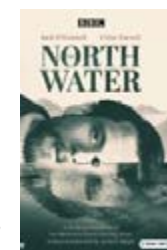

Long Island by Colm Tóibín
Recommended by Cassie

Eilis Lacey is Irish, married to Tony Fiorello, one of four Italian American brothers, all of whom live in neighboring houses on a cul-de-sac in Lindenhurst, Long Island, with their wives and children and Tony's parents, a huge extended family that lives and works, eats and plays together.

The Reformatory by Tananarive Due
Recommended by Stacey

A gripping, page-turning novel set in Jim Crow Florida that follows a boy sent to a reform school that is an absolute nightmare.

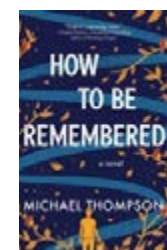

The North Water by Liz Moore
Recommended by Claire

After joining an Arctic whaling trip in 1859 aboard the Volunteer, Patrick Sumner, a disgraced, former army surgeon and the ship's medic, becomes involved in a confrontation with the brutal harpooner, Henry Drax.

Eileen by Ottessa Moshfegh
Recommended by Stacey

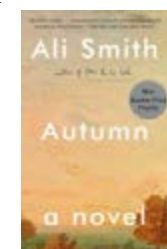

This dark mystery/thriller follows the story of a young woman who strikes up a friendship with a new colleague at the boys' prison where she works. The relationship pulls Eileen into complicity in a crime. The novel was adapted to film in 2023, starring Anne Hathaway.

How to be Remembered by Michael Thompson

Recommended by Brigitte

"For fans of Matt Haig and The Invisible Life of Addie LaRue comes a big-hearted novel following a man who can never be remembered and his journey to become unforgettable..."

Autumn by Ali Smith
Recommended by Julianna

From the Man Booker-shortlisted and Baileys Prize-winning author of How to be both: a breathtakingly inventive new novel--about aging, time, love, and stories themselves--that launches an extraordinary quartet of books called Seasonal.

The Measure by Nikki Erlick
Recommended by Julianna

When every person, all over the globe, receives a small wooden box bearing the same inscription and a single piece of string inside, the world is thrown into a collective frenzy, in this novel told through multiple perspectives that introduces an unforgettable cast of characters.
