

LOCAL RESOURCES

These local groups and organizations provide support and guidance to both seasoned and new homeschool families

ENRICHri

ENRICHri is an all volunteer 501(c)(3) nonprofit. A welcoming, inclusive group that offers many events, field trips, and support services throughout the year. The group promotes the development of a supportive homeschooling community for parents and children, provides opportunities for relevant, affordable real-world learning, and group homeschooling opportunities, and advocates for members in the community.

Right for RI

RIGHT is an organization of families committed to educational excellence and freedom. The goals of RIGHT are to promote home education for those wishing to teach their children at home and to support their efforts that protect parental authority and educational freedom. Although not a requirement for membership, RIGHT operates on the basis of Biblical principles by upholding the Judeo-Christian ethic. RIGHT serves over 300 homeschooling families in Rhode Island through activities, events, and local district support, and through side-by-side encouragement.
